I, Masahiro YATAKE, the undersigned, do hereby declare:

1. THAT I am a solo-inventor of the invention described and claimed in the above patent application.

2. THAT the following experiments were conducted under my direction and control:

Ink compositions 1 to 11 described in the specification of the above application on page 20, line 27 to page 24, line 18 were provided.

The eight (8) ink compositions were evaluated as follows:

(1) Print quality

The ink composition was loaded into an ink jet printer EM-930 manufactured by Seiko Epson Corporation and 2,000 Japanese characters of MS Min-cho in the standard size of Microsoft Word were continuously printed by 100 pages of plain paper, Xerox P, of size A4. The prints were inspected for print disorder, and the results were evaluated according to the following evaluation criteria. The results were as shown in the following table.

Grade A: Print disorder did not take place at all on 100 pages.

Grade B: Print disorder took place 1 to 5 times on 100 pages.

Grade C: Print disorder took place 6 to 20 times on 100 pages.

Grade D: Print disorder took place 11 times or more on 100 pages.

(2) Anti-clogging property

The ink composition was loaded into an ink jet printer EM-930, and the printer was allowed to stand under conditions of temperature 60°C and relative humidity 40% for 10 days. Thereafter, the cleaning operations were carried out until normal ejection of the ink composition through all the nozzles was obtained. The times of the cleaning operation required were as shown in the following table.

	(1) Printing quality	(2) Anti-clogging property
Ink Composition 1	B	5
Ink Composition 2	B	4
Ink Composition 3	B	4
Ink Composition 4	B	4
Ink Composition 5	A	3
Ink Composition 6	A	2
Ink Composition 7	A	2
Ink Composition 8	A	2
Ink Composition 9	D	No recovery with 20 times operation
Ink Composition 10	D	5
Ink Composition 11	C	5
